MESSAGE IS GIVEN

Canal Treaty and the Cuban Reciprocity Treaty To Be Considered Soon.

(Special By Scripps-McLae.) Washington, March 5.—The senate of the fifty eighth congress convened in special session at noon today as pursuant to the call of the president. The new senators were sworn in and took their seats amid continued applause.

Plenty of Time
The two main objects of the session the Panama treaty and the Cuban bill will be taken up at once. Senator Morgan is still prepared to fight the canal treaty but it is not thought his opposition will amount to much as the vote is now overwhelmingly in favor of accepting the treaty as it stands.

Many Flowers
The desks of the new senators and many of the old ones were completely covered with flowers sent by friends and constituents.

The Message
Soon after the senate was called to order and the new members sworn in the following special message from the President was received: "I have called the senate in an extraordinary session to consider the treaties which it had proved impossible to take any action on during the session of congress just ended. I ask your special attention to the treaty with the Republic of Colombia, securing to the United States the right to build the Panama Canal and to the treaty with the Republic of Cuba for securing the measure of commercial reciprocity between the two countries and the great and far reaching importance of these two treaties for the welfare of the United States. The urgent need for their adoption requires me to impose upon you the inconvenience of meeting at this time."

MURDERER KNAPP TELLS WHY HE CONFESSED

Wife Slayer Says He Sought to Disgrace Mary King, His Sister, for Betraying Him.

Hamilton, O., March 5.—The reason for the making of all his confessions was given by Knapp to his sister, Mrs. Sadie Wenzell. The prisoner harbors ill-will against his sister, Mary King, and her husband, and does not attempt to conceal it when he charges that they betrayed him. "They told on me," he said, "so I just thought that I would tell everything, and, if they were looking for disgrace, they could have the disgrace of it all. I hope they are satisfied now."

"I would like to have had the money to bury Hannah," he said, when told that there was no question of the identity of the body. "But as the Kings have butted in and say they are going to bury her they can do it."

It is believed the body will be turned over to the Kings at Cincinnati.

The fourth wife of Knapp, Annie Gamble of Indianapolis, came to Hamilton and was driven to the jail. In company with the deputy sheriff and jailer, she was admitted into the presence of Knapp. She cried bitterly and showed that she was greatly moved. She asked Knapp if his confession of the horrible murders was true, and he answered that it was. Knapp pleaded with her to remain in Hamilton, but she refused to do so, saying that she would return at once to Indianapolis. She would not believe the confessions until Knapp himself told her they were true.

NOT A COMET

Father Duffy Denies Theory of English Scientist Forbes

Chicago, Ill., March 5.—In speaking of the new and widely promulgated theory of David Forbes, the English scientist, that the star of Bethlehem was in reality Halley's comet, Father F. T. Duffy, secretary of the American Church institute said last night: "Mr. Forbes' theory is not tenable, as a glance at the history of astronomy and the earth will show. Halley discovered the comet in 1682. It has appeared twice since, once in 1759 and again in 1835. Mr. Forbes contends that his comet should have appeared fifteen years before the present era, but to support his argument he tries in vain to prove that Dionysius, upon whose computation the present chronology rests, erred."

"Mr. Forbes' theory can be refuted easily and we have to fall back upon the first and unshakable statement that the star of Bethlehem was a star—that it was Sirius, the star of the East."

Loses Another Match: Youseff, the Turk, was beaten by Kid Klank in their wrestling match at Rockford Tuesday evening. ## CLEARING BUFFALO MYSTERY

Police Find Motive and Say Woman Who Slew Burdick Is Known

Buffalo, N. Y., March 5.—The finger of police suspicion in the case of the murder of Edwin L. Burdick, the manufacturer, is pointing toward a woman whose home is in the Elmwood district. Her history is known to the police.

By far the most important statement made since the tragedy was given out yesterday by Superintendent Bull, who heretofore has had little to say. He announced a suspect, and that in due time there would be an arrest.

Superintendent Bull says the suspect is a woman. He says in part: "While I have not been taking an active part in the work and left it to Mr. Cusack, he reported to me fully from time to time. Mr. Cusack has well-defined theories. He has established a motive. I gave my ideas to Mr. Cusack as to the motive that led up to the murder and told who I suspected of the crime. He had come to the same conclusion I did. While we think he could make an arrest with safety, we prefer to wait, and we believe that certain evidence we wish to gather will lead to successful results."

Its only redeeming feature is that it lasts for years in as palatable a condition as when fresh.

Word from Milwaukee announces that the common council last night decided to purchase one hundred of the voting machines similar to the one exhibited here some days ago. The vote taken was thirty-five to seven.

Mr. S. C. Hamilton, who was here exhibiting the machine also says that the town board of Wauwatosa has purchased five at the cost of $2,500, paying annually $625. This being what they save with the machines, Wauwatosa, like Janesville, has nine precincts under the present arrangement and with the new machines will have but five voting places thus making a saving for the town of over six hundred dollars a year aside from the benefits derived from the use of the machine.

TO SHIP COAL FROM ILLINOIS TO ENGLAND

Foreign Syndicate Is Said to Have Secured Options on 30,000 Acres of Land About Danville.

New York, March 5.—A syndicate of English capitalists is seeking to acquire coal fields in the Danville section of Illinois with the idea of shipping much of the coal to England. One possible result of the purchase, if effected, will be the construction of another railroad from Danville to Chicago, a distance of 125 miles, shortening the route fifty miles. This branch would connect with the Big Four system at Chicago and give that company a through line from that city to Cairo and thence to the gulf.

John R. Andrews, representative of the syndicate, before going on board the Celtic, admitted that he had the options, but declined to go into details. He expected to be in the United States again before the end of the current month to close the deal, which he conceded covered the purchase of nearly 30,000 acres of coal lands.

The options obtained by Mr. Andrews are said to cover the property of the Westville Coal Company, the Kellyville Coal Company, one other corporation and a number of individual holdings.

JANESVILLE MAY SOON ESTABLISH A REST ROOM FOR WOMEN VISITORS

PLANS WILL BE PRESENTED TO LADIES OF CITY.

THIS WOULD BE A BIG BOON

Idea In View Would Be to Rent Quarters Expressly for Our Country Visitors.

One of the municipal possibilities of the near future is the establishment of a woman's rest room for the special benefit of the farmers' wives of Rock county. This project has existed in the minds of several enterprising citizens for a long time and quiet inquiry among the business men shows a strong sentiment in favor of the plan.

In fact so general has been the endorsement of the idea by those to whom it has been mentioned, that it would seem that all that has been lacking to put the project into execution was some one to take the initiative. It is the general opinion of those who have given considerable thought to the plan, that the rest room will be an assured fact as soon as the sentiment in favor of it crystallizes into an organized effort.

Furniture Is Donated
The first definite step toward the rest room has been taken by the board of directors of the old Oak Lawn Hospital association, they having voted what furniture remains at the hospital to the ladies of Janesville to be used in furnishing the proposed rooms. The action of the hospital directors was taken at the request of some of the ladies who are interested in the new movement.

Value of Such Rooms
The value of the project is twofold, being of incalculable value to the women who come to the city to do their shopping and who have no place to go to rest or wait until their husbands have transacted their business and are ready to return home. It would also serve as an advertisement for the city and would doubtless be an attraction which would result in material benefit for the merchants of the city.

No Place to Wait
Under the present conditions the countrywoman who accompanies her husband to the city has no place to spend her spare time unless she has relatives or friends whom she wishes to visit. Her shopping is generally done long before her husband is ready to return home and she must either wait in the stores where she does her trading or sit in the time as best she can. As a result the women do not come to town as often as they would like to and the business interests of the city suffer correspondingly.

While the plans have not yet taken definite shape, it is probable that some such general scheme will be adopted here as in Madison where the rest room has been a great success. A house located near the business center of the city will be rented and furnished and a matron put in charge.

Many Free Privileges
This house, with the exception of the matron's private rooms will be put at the disposal of the farmers' wives, entirely without expense to them. There will be a general reception room and toilet rooms where the ladies may rid themselves of the dust and dirt of travel and rearrange their hair. A rest room will afford the opportunity to lie down and the house will be kept supplied with good literature which the ladies may enjoy during their leisure time.

Free Dining Room
One of the privileges which would doubtless be most highly appreciated, would be the use of the dining room. According to the present indefinite plans this will be equipped with tables and dishes and the country visitors may bring their own lunches and eat in comfort, absolutely without charge. If they desire tea or coffee, it can be secured at the matron at a nominal expense.

For the Busy Mother
Another advantage will be that women who are now unable to come to the city to shop on account of small children, may leave them at the rest room in the charge of the matron. In some places a small fee is charged for this extra service. The rooms would also offer social attractions for friends who chanced to be in the city on the same day would have a pleasant place where they could enjoy their visit together, instead of being compelled to satisfy themselves with a few words on a street corner or in a store.

Employment Agency
In connection with the Madison rest room there is an employment agency in operation in charge of the matron. Persons seeking employees pay $1.00 but the employees pay no fees at any time. Two or three rooms are also reserved for transient rental to women who desire lodging for a night or two, at nominal price. The house is open from seven in the morning until six in the evening.

Results at Madison
The Madison rest room has been running since May 5, 1902 and in less than a year it has proved to be a paying investment for the city. It is under the management and direction of the Woman's Exchange but the financial support is assured by the Forty Thousand club. Representatives from other women's societies serve on the committee from the Woman's Exchange and a standing committee from the Forty Thousand club acts with this executive board.

The majority of the business men of Madison contribute to the support of the rest room and the entire list appears on the attractive announcements which were sent to every farmer's house in Dane county. The merchants thus secured excellent advertising for their generosity.

have been accomplished. The main object has been to secure the comfort of the out-of-town patrons. The women have appreciated the advantages given them and their gratitude adds to their interest in the city whose generosity they enjoy. Where the women are interested, the men are sure to be and merchants say that rest rooms have increased their country trade to a surprising extent.

Would Advertise City
Janesville certainly desires to encourage country trade and many of the merchants are heartily in favor of this new plan. The fact that it appeals to the business men as an excellent way to advertise the city by extending courtesies to those who come here to trade will doubtless insure the financial support required.

Appeal to Women
It is to the women of Janesville that an appeal to take charge of the establishment of this rest room is soon to be made. Rev. Robert C. Denison is one of those who is deeply interested in the movement, having been impressed with the city's need in this direction for a long time. He has preached on the subject from his pulpit and now he has decided to take the initiative and start the ball rolling.

Women to Meet
Within a few days Rev. Denison will call a meeting of the representative women of the city for the purpose of discussing the project and forming an organization to take charge of the movement. The proposed rest room is to be a city affair, not allied to any particular church. It is not as a pastor but as a citizen that Rev. Denison is trying to organize the sentiment which exists in favor of providing some convenient and suitable place for country women while they are in the city.

BOWLERS GET IT LAID OVER THEM

Fingerballists Come Out 278 Pins to the Bad in Match at Beloit
Last Night.

It was to the tune of about 278 pins that the Janesville bowlers were snowed under at Beloit last evening. The absence of certain players might be advanced as a mitigating feature, but even at that it was clear that the five were in for defeat. They got it. Their highest score was 785, and the last game it fell to 722.

Toward the last a general spirit of "jolliness" has infected the alley, and good natured jibes turned the alley into a bedlam of mirth. The Beloit players as well as the locals took a decided slump.

Perkins took the only score that passed the double century point. Baumann won the honors for Janesville in the highest average made by that team.

The Score
	Beloit	Janesville
Dorrbaker	132	162	147
Hollister	189	182	173
Perkins	206	168	175
Van Wart	184	166	162
Frost	159	173	162
Totals	860	851	819 2530

A return game will probably be played in this city with Beloit next week. The locals expect to meet Rockford the week after. So little work has been done on the alleys for so long, that every one is out of form, as was painfully evident last night, but the men expect to get back again soon.

Laurel Lodge Meeting: The members of Laurel Lodge, No. 2, Degree of Honor, will hold a regular meeting this evening and at the close of the business session there will be a social for the members and their families at which time supper will be served. The occasion is the fourth anniversary of the order which is celebrated each year. After supper the gathering will adjourn to the lodge room where progressive euchre will be played during the balance of the evening.

A Birthday Party: Beatrice Saxby, of 211 South Main street celebrated her eleventh birthday last evening by entertaining a small company of her friends. The evening was spent in parlor games and other amusements. Light refreshments were served in a dainty manner and the little hostess received many beautiful gifts as a reminder of the occasion.

...Forty Years Ago...

Janesville Daily Gazette, Wednesday, March 5, 1893.—Our dispatches from New York say that gold was sold in the street for 50 per cent. premium today. We presume it went even lower than that as private advices say it would not bring over 40. Congress has achieved a victory over the money changers at which all rejoice except the speculators, and no one has any sympathy for them.

The eighth and twelfth regiments, made up of Wisconsin soldiers are now located from thirty to forty miles east of Memphis, between Memphis and LaGrange, guarding the railroad and aiding to hold that portion of the country. Expected to Speak to a Big Crowd.

Rev. Carl D. Thompson of Denver, Col., will speak at Foresters' hall this evening. If the hopes of the men who have been most influential in securing him at this time are realized, the meeting will be the largest attended gathering of believers in socialistic doctrines, and curious listeners that has ever yet been held in this city. Mr. Thompson firmly established a reputation as a hard thinker, a careful and forceful speaker.

CARL D. THOMPSON
er and a man who is pleasant to meet and an interesting conversationalist. What subject will be taken this evening has not been definitely announced. It is only known that he will speak on some phase of the socialist question, with a special view to forwarding the social democratic party. As the general theory of the party has already been set forth by him to a Janesville audience, it is considered probable that he will devote his efforts tonight to the more concrete phases of the question, especially to some of the problems that are now confronting the socialists of the land.

GOOD RECORD FOR Y. M. C. A. TEAM

Association Basket Ball Players Have Lost But Two Games in the Season Just Ended.

It is hardly probable that the Y. M. C. A. basket ball team will play any further match games this season, although practice is still being kept up. Athletic Director Mack hopes to arrange another game with the high school but that is still tentative. A percentage of 750 stands to the team's credit on the games already played. In eight games two defeats have been administered, one by the high school, and the other by the Rockford Y. M. C. A. The schedule follows:

Scores of Season
December 27.—Y. M. C. A., 19; High School, 15.
January 1.—Y. M. C. A., 15; High School, 12.

January 24.—Y. M. C. A., 24; Rockford, 33.
January 28.—Y. M. C. A., 24; Milton College, 16.

SPLENDID UNION CONVENTION HELD

BIG ATTENDANCE IN SPITE OF STORMY WEATHER.

REV. GAYLORD MAKES ADDRESS

Popular Speaker Talks of Unions as an Army—An Interesting Program Arranged.

If interest, enthusiasm and a rattling good program make a successful union convention, the meeting at Assembly hall last evening was an unqualified success. In point of numbers the attendance was smaller than had been anticipated by the Federated Trades Council when the plan was first broached many weeks ago. But it is safe to say that everyone was agreeably surprised to see how many felt sufficient interest to venture out on so unpromising a night.

From beginning to end of the program everything went with a snap and vim. Some of the speeches were long, but although a few sleepy children, kept up long after their usual bed hour, could not suppress their yawns, their parents hung on every word with undiminished absorption.

Unionism was of course the one topic. The songs told of the achievements and the future of organized labor. In every address, by union laborer, clergyman, or exponent of political theories, the cause of the organized workman was the keynote.

Music A Feature
Many thanks were given Mrs. H. L. Baker for her untiring efforts in arranging and aiding in presenting the musical part of the evening's entertainment. Many of her pupils, most of them girls of from eight to twelve years of age, took the most prominent part, and they reflected much credit upon their teacher.

An ode to labor, set to the air of "America" was the song with which the program opened. Ladies from the Woman's Union Label League were the singers, and the piano accompaniment was played by Mrs. Baker, as were all of the accompaniments. Rev. R. M. Vaughan was the first speaker. He paid a tribute to the interest manifested by the workmen in the numbers of them who were present. He felt hearty sympathy with the laboring man, perhaps because there are so many of them. The proportion of union men among them is very large. There is much good that these organized laborers can accomplish. A patriotic feeling can be inspired. Unity of feeling and purpose can be attained throughout the world. The brotherhood of man can be more surely attained by this method than any other.

Struggle for Liberty

Rev. R. C. Denison was the next to take the floor. He spoke with great emphasis of the great movements of history which have been actuated by the desire to secure liberty. But no man is free. He has no right to absolute liberty. What he is entitled to is life under just and righteous laws. Those he has an unalienable right to struggle for. But in a man's struggles he ought not to be selfish. Some men say that a certain movement will liberate them to take money from the pocket of the trusts and put it in their own pockets. That is not a right object. The object should be to bring all people toward right and just thinking. Men are no longer held down by superstition. They are free to think, and they have ceased to fear. They have begun to think in earnest.

Another song was introduced before the next speaker. "My Mammy's With The Angels" was the subject, and the singer was Miss Hazel Giesler. So hearty was the reception given her first song that she was obliged to respond with another.

Robert Jensen was then called upon. He told of the spirit of organization which is a part of the birthright of all people. Among all classes and tribes organizations exist. The Indians band together. Soldiers are closely organized. The unions are essential for the welfare of the laboring men. By them all interests become common, and in unity of interest great things can be accomplished. He vividly pictured the wretched conditions that exist in sweat shops where the unions are not recognized, and the union label is not affixed to the garments that are made.

Musical Part of Program
Following Mr. Jensen a violin solo, "Then You'll Remember Me," was played by James Irwin.

Master Fred Jensen recited a poem which he had himself composed. If one can judge from the sentiments of the poem Master Jensen is a sturdy union man.

Mabel Giesler played a difficult piano composition with excellent spirit and expression. Will Garbutt sang in very effective manner, "I Have Sighed To Rest Me," and an encore was demanded. In response he sang a song of his own composition, "The Girl I Adore."

Rev. Gaylord's Address
Rev. Winfield R. Gaylord, well-known to the audience from his past appearances in this city, then made the principal address of the evening. In his talk he likened the unions to an army. One by one he took up the functions of an army, and applied them to the duties of the unions.

Enlistment is the basis of the army. Men good and true must be secured. Recruits must be gained on all hands, but only the best men taken. The unions should take care of the class of men whom they admit to their number. Discipline is of importance. Union members must be closely organized. They should be kept in touch with all bodies of the work. They should be drilled to attend the meetings. They should be carefully educated in their duties. Actual warfare is of two kinds.

There is the skirmishing and guerilla sort of fighting, and there is the line of battle. The unions in their organization are the skirmishers. The actual conflict comes with the ballot. There labor has strength to fight capital. The strike is the same weapon that the employer uses, and in it he is stronger, but in government the rich man is dependent upon the workman. If he cares to use his power he can end the unlawful exertion of authority by voting in the right direction.

Selfishness should not impel the laborers in their efforts? No, not unless it is selfish to think of one's family when they are starving, of one's children when they are poorly clothed, of one's wife when she has not the advantages of her neighbor. Righteousness is the inherent law of the universe, and it is that for which the workingman should wield his ballot. In all parts of the land steps are being taken in that direction. Janesville is doing it.

Beloit Man Spoke
President Carpenter of the Beloit Federated Trades Council was the closing speaker. He spoke of the strength of the Beloit unions. The total membership is now about 2,200 men and women. They are not all of the best type of union men, but they are getting into line. In his official capacity he bespoke the hearty support of the Beloit unions in anything that the Janesville unions might wish to accomplish. He intimated that it might be necessary for Beloit to call on Janesville at some early time. Above all he emphasized the need of educating the workmen into fuller realization of their rights and the method of securing them.

Preceding his address Mabel Giesler and Maggie Shields sang a union parody of "In the Good Old Summer Time." The convention closed with a quartette, "Good Night," sung by May McKeigue, Oda McKeigue, Maggie Shields, and Mary Anderson. It was after eleven o'clock when the meeting was brought to a close and the Beloit delegation had barely time to catch their car for their home. Nearly seventy-five made up the visiting party.

TOBACCO MARKET IS FLUCTUATING

REPORTS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTRY.

LOCAL CONDITIONS ARE GOOD

The Prices Elsewhere Do Not Hold as Steady as They Might.

The principal business in the leaf tobacco trade at present is confined to an effort on the part of the warehousemen to get their 1902 purchases into the cases. Riders are commencing to abandon their search for tobacco, as the supply remaining in the hands of the farmers, has become so small that it is hardly worth the time and trouble necessary to procure it.

Warehouses Crowded
Delivery of crops at all the warehouses is kept up as fast as room can be made to receive them. The warehouses are working all the hands they can secure to get the goods already received sorted and packed. Some of the dealers report having all the help they can accommodate while others are short handed and are making every effort to fill up their tables.

Are Branching Out
The thirty-five buildings in this city used for assorting and storing leaf tobacco are now all in use, and many of the packers have warehouses in the neighboring towns, where they are operating large forces. The Janesville dealers are certainly progressive and each year branch out more extensively in their packing and buying. At present there is hardly a town in any of the prominent growing districts in which Janesville firms are not represented and operating a warehouse.

Market Improving
The market for old leaf is improving all the time and there is evidently more leaf moving than the dealers are willing to report. Prices, however, do not show much of a change and remain about the same as early in the season. George H. Rumrill has lately shipped twelve cars from this city and three from Evansville. John Souleman & Co., have sold 212 cases of 1901 and F. S. Baines 200 cases export.

New York Market
The past week was the quietest so far this year and for many months past. Only as regards binder leaf there were inquiries and some anxiety to gobble up what was in sight, but there is very little that is both serviceable and within the figures manufacturers want to pay. Concerning the other types only small sales for immediate needs were affected; even the Sumatra and Havana suffered under the general dullness. And as our reports of the other branches show, slackness seems to prevail in every line.

New York State
The buyers are careful rather than liberal purchasers, and the sales reported did not aggregate anything like the number recorded in former seasons. Prices average from 4 to 6 cents in the bundle, and these figures are so unsatisfactory that many growers have commenced to do their own assorting in the hope of realizing more money from their crops. The warehouses are open and working, but there is no great rush, as deliveries have been delayed by the weather. Taken altogether, the season is not a very lively one, and some farmers are so discouraged that they declare their intention of abandoning tobacco growing. But when planting time comes they may change their minds, as they have done before.

Connecticut Valley
Sales continue to be reported at all sorts of prices, none of which seem to be satisfactory to the growers. They cannot conceive why one man should receive from 16 to 18 cents for his crop while his adjoining neighbor has to accept 8 or 9, or even less. The idea is growing that co-operation is the remedy for this divergence, although just how co-operation is to make a crop worth more money is not quite clear. The trade is very peculiar as shown by one transaction known to the writer. A farmer had ten acres of tobacco. He sold three acres at 18 cents, which he reported with pride, and his neighbors congratulated him upon getting a fair price. But he sold the remaining seven acres at 2 cents, to a buyer who was supremely indifferent as to whether the offer was accepted or not. Yet this same farmer only half an hour or more before disposing of his leaf in two lots had refused an offer of 8 cents through for his crop.

Ohio
The situation of the tobacco market in this section during the week was quite exciting for a time, the competition among the buyers being very lively, with the effect of advancing the price of Zimmer Spanish to 5 and 10 cents through. But although the struggle to secure leaf was fierce while it lasted, it soon subsided, the buyers withdrawing from the field, and the farmers who had refused 9 cents a few days ago would now jump at such an offer. It is more than suspected that the buyers who under the spur of competition offered high prices for the tobacco acquired rather more than they wanted at these figures, and will probably hold off in the hope of getting more later at a low figure in order to average the cost of their holdings. But, as at least half the crop has already been bought, it is a question whether the remainder will be obtainable at the desired low prices. In seed leaf there was considerable business at prices ranging from 5 to 7 cents, but the traffic in Zimmer Spanish was so lively as to make it appear insignificant. The warehouses are open and deliveries are plentiful.

Pennsylvania
The retail trade and the manufacturers are getting back to their normal sales. The leaf tobacco trade is very dull. That is not owing to lack of demand, but to the scarcity and high prices of tobacco. When

A Layman's Lenten Sermon

Eighth day of Lent: Matthew xiv.—At that time Herod the Tetrarch heard the fame of Jesus. And said unto his servants: This is John the Baptist: He is risen from the dead and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him. And so we seen that even the King Herod was afraid. He understood not what manner of man he was dealing with and answered the question as best he could by proclaiming to his servants that it was John the Baptist's come to life. John he had himself killed to suit them whim of a wanton whom he desired and now his conscience troubled him and he feared the wrath of the new John. Can we not learn a lesson from this? Do we not too often seek to explain some act of the supreme being by the same means that did Herod? Do we not turn in fear from an all-seeming truth and try to explain to ourselves that we are not afraid that it is merely the dead past risen to frighten us not a reality? Let us this Lenten period go back over our lives. Let us search out all portions so that we may be ready for what may come and not be afraid or try to explain it all away as merely a theory. Herod killed John the Baptist to please a wanton. Have not we all done some deed which worries us, which we would rather we had not done? To the majority the answer is yes. Let us then search out and repent earnestly for Christ said: "Unless ye repent ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven."

...Theatrical Notes...

Gideon's Minsteris
In these days of the quick interchange of intelligence it is a hard row that the poor theatrical companies have to hoe. No sooner is a bad performance given than it is heralded abroad by the press, and the company perpetrating it is soon sunk into oblivion. From the critical notices which have preceded Gideon's Big Minsteris, who hold the boards at the Myers Grand, Monday, March 9, the music and fun-loving people of Janesville, and of whom there are not a few, will have an evening of rare entertainment.

Their performance bristles with new features and sensational acts. Sweet singers render the latest ballads, there is dancing galore. The comedians are said to be the highest salaried colored actors traveling. The olio, or second part, consists of eleven numbers in which are introduced new and novel features never before seen in this city. The company is thirty-five strong and has a band, a noon-day parade that is but an outward and visible indication of the excellence of the evening performance.

prices come down, if they ever do, there will be strenuous times in the leaf trade.

Missouri
It may be noted that there is no weakness in prices of leaf tobacco—good tobacco of all grades commands top prices and current transactions are closed at asking prices without much dickering or haggling. Forso sweated 1902 Connecticut tobacco was offered here this week, but was taken sparingly by our jobbers because the lots offered were a little shy on light grades. Nineteen hundred and one Zimmer Spanish is moving freely and the top grades are fetching high prices.—U. S. Tobacco Journal.

To Raise Tobacco in Africa
Arthur Ellickson and Olat Lee, two young men, of Cambridge, Dane Co., who have been taking work at the state agricultural college at the university, left Madison Monday, bound for South Africa, where they will superintend the raising of tobacco on a large British holding.

They will receive fat salaries; how much they have not announced, but it is known that they start at more than $1,200 a year each. Good wages for farmer boys. The young men were secured for the British tobacco raisers through the efforts of ex-Assemblyman L. N. Coe, of Wyocena, Columbia county. He communicated with Dean W. A. Henry, of the agricultural college, and was able to make suitable arrangements with Lee and Ellickson, who have been reared, as it were, in tobacco fields, being raised in a flourishing tobacco district, and they are consequently perfectly familiar with the business. They also have the advantage of the education in scientific agriculture offered in the state university college of agriculture.—Madison Democrat.

AT THE Y. M. C. A.

Special practice is being held almost daily for the exhibition which is to take place about the first of April. The apparatus work is receiving special attention, although all of the gymnasium classes are being drilled with a view to greater accuracy and perfection.

Last evening a league basket ball game played between the teams captained by the two Gregory brothers. The Palmer brothers' lives will compete Saturday evening.

Everything will be quiet about the gymnasium tonight. On the evening of the church prayer meetings there are no athletic classes.

The damp weather of the last few days has made the checker boards more popular than usual. Shortly after the noon hour, and sometimes before, the players begin to arrive, and the boards are in almost constant use until the building is closed at ten o'clock in the evening.

A live hand ball game was played on the hand ball courts when the Carroll college basketball players were in the city. Slim, the athletic director of the Spring City school, played a series of three games with O. A. Oestreich. The Waukesha man only succeeding in winning a single game.

If you try Mrs. Austin's Pancakes, you will find what to have for breakfast.

which is scheduled to be made here shortly, and which is being awaited with considerable interest, will be notable for several reasons. In the first place the presentation will make known what is absolutely the most successful dramatization of a popular book that he stage has known in many years. Proof of this is furnished in part by the fact that the play is now in its third year having outlived many works which were given to the public at the time it was staged, and by the further fact that its popularity seems to increase rather than diminish with time. A particularly strong and well balanced company will be seen in the play, which contains all of the things which made David Harum as a novel so entertaining.

The Cowboy and the Lady
S. Miller Kent, who will shortly be seen in this city in the Fitch-Goodwin play, "The Cowboy and the Lady," made his first stage appearance with Dion Boucicault. Soon after he joined James O'Neill to play Albert in "Monte Cristo," which character he impersonated successfully for three seasons. His advancement from that time on was rapid, and resulted in an engagement with Wilson Barrett, playing Laertes in "Hamlet" his first London engagement.

BRODHEAD SCHOOL WENT ON A STRIKE

The Pupils Did Not Like It Because a Favorite Teacher Had Been Discharged.

The Monroe Evening Times has the following interesting article: The pupils of the Brodhead high school went out on a strike Monday morning. The whole school marched out in a body. The parents of the pupils did not approve of their conduct and many of the students returned to their studies this afternoon. The walk out is said to have been caused by the summary discharge by the school board of Miss Stueckl, one of the teachers of the high school. She was discharged on the ground that she was incompetent and her dismissal was recommended by the state high school inspector. The board had the matter under consideration for a month or two, during which time the trouble that came to a climax today has been brewing. Miss Stueckl was exceedingly popular with the school and when the students reported this morning to find that there was another teacher on duty in her place they hurriedly passed the word and all went out.

The new teacher is a much better one than the board desired to hire but the school year being so far advanced they had no choice and were obliged to pay a larger salary.

ATTACHES MOVING PICTURE MACHINE

Edison Outfit Attached in Order to Secure Payment of a Grocery Bill.

A moving picture outfit is the leading actor in a trial which will take place in Justice Reeder's office tomorrow morning, unless the attorneys decide upon adjournment. The apparatus was brought into court by reason of an attachment suit brought by Frank P. Buck against A. J. Hinds. $65.33 is the amount of a bill which it is alleged Hinds owes to Buck for groceries. In order to secure payment attachment papers were served upon Hinds by Wallace Cochrane as constable.

Hinds immediately brought suit for replevin, claiming that he was unlawfully deprived of the property. As enumerated the articles consist of one Edison Universal Kinetoscope with stereopticon attachment complete, 1,100 feet of film, three illustrated songs, one extension table, and two thousand tickets. Jesse Earle is the attorney for Hinds and Ralph Adair for Buck.

The case of D. M. Barlass against C. B. Woodman, which was brought in Jesse Earle's justice court has been dismissed, settlement having been reached between the parties. The action was brought in regard to payment for farm machinery.

PRAY WHILE ON THEIR BEATS

Unusual Requirements Are Asked of Zion City's Policemen.

In addition to their duties as guardians of the peace and inspectors, on the alert for violations of the anti-tobacco smoking ordinance, policemen at Zion City are required to offer up prayer while on duty. Instead of the customary roll call the night force assembles for prayers at 5 o'clock every afternoon. Editor Dinis led a recent meeting, and one of the officers said afterward: "The lesson of watching and praying was most impressively given. The vast interests to be guarded and the great personal responsibility for each man for the work of the night was presented with directness. Several short petitions, full of thanksgiving and imploring God's help for faithful service, followed by a glad, earnest hymn, closed the devotions." It is said that no policeman has yet been found asleep while on duty.

THE CITY ELECTION

Only a month remains before the city election and more or less speculation exists as to what course will be pursued by the Municipal League. It is generally understood that the league through its executive committee will present a list of candidates for the various city and ward offices, and that the public will be asked to endorse them.

The league recognizes the fact that the great mass of voters, in the city, belong to either the republican or democratic party, and that while the league itself is non-partisan in character and in selecting candidates will present a list equally distributed between the two parties, the support of one or both of the party organizations is desirable if not necessary.

It has been suggested that the simple announcement of candidates and an opportunity to vote for them on election day, is all the organization that the occasion demands, and that the ticket selected will be supported by a large majority of voters. While it would be gratifying to know that Janesville had reached a point where the voting sentiment was ready to crystallize in supporting such a movement, it is hardly reasonable to suppose that these ideal conditions exist, and it is well for the league to take into account the fact that both of the political parties are organized with city and ward committees and ready for work.

Party caucuses will be called as usual, at least fifteen days, before election, ward officers nominated and delegates elected to a city convention. This does not mean that the league candidates will be ignored, but it does mean that a strenuous effort should be made on the part of the league management, to secure the organized endorsement of both parties for league candidates.

The responsibility placed upon the executive committee of the league is a grave responsibility and it should be met squarely and without regard to sentiment or prejudice.

The committee is practically a close corporation, delegated with power to select for suffrage a class of men for the several offices not only believe in a wholesome administration, but who possess the ability and disposition to put this belief in practice.

While not a political organization it is vested with the power of a well organized party in selecting candidates. It will find difficulty in selecting the right kind of men who will stand, for they do not belong to the office seeking class.

The committee should keep in mind the fact that the league is not engaged in temperance nor theoretical reform. The movement is popular with taxpayers because it is a business organization, imbued with the single purpose, business reform in conducting city affairs.

The platform is so broad that it should interest every taxpayer and command his support, and it will if wisely handled.

In selecting candidates the committee should recognize the fact that more than goodness and ability are necessary to insure success. Elements of popularity should also be taken into account. Opposition to any ticket that may be selected must be expected and the league will discover as soon as the campaign opens, that while it is not a political organization, that it will be obliged to compete with political methods and measures.

Success depends very largely upon a wise selection of candidates and a display of good hard sense as well as enthusiasm.

TIME HONORED OBITUARY

The Pensacola (Florida) Journal publishes the following sensible article on obituaries and resolutions. It is worth reading and heeding. Obituaries that are out of date and resolutions of respect are the nightmare of many newspaper offices:

"The custom of publishing resolutions of respect, memorial poems and lengthy obituaries by friends or kinsmen of departed loved ones is a custom which, while beautiful in its purpose, is at times possessed of its abuses as well as its uses. This is particularly the case when the aforesaid friends or kinsmen labor under the delusion that such things should be published by a newspaper free or just for the fun of the thing.

"The Journal was the first paper in Pensacola to inaugurate the custom of charging for the publication of these resolutions, poems and obituaries, and since doing so it is happy to state that the great majority of people recognize the justice of its position and commend the paper for taking that stand.

"When a person dies, the newspaper or secures all the information it can about his life, his public or social position, his family, his fraternal connections, his funeral and everything, in fact, in which the public is likely to be interested. These things are all published as matters of news or information. The publication does not cost anything. It is absolutely free. It is done as a part of the newspaper business and duty to its readers. Right there, however, its duty ends.

"Several weeks later a lodge or some other organization to which the deceased belonged meets and adopts resolutions of respect, some friend writes an obituary, and some one else writes a poem. These things are not news. The paper printed all the news there was in the matter several weeks previous. The resolutions, the obituary and the poem represent so many little testimonials of love and esteem by the ones who write or adopt them, and they are of absolutely no interest to any one else. If they are worth printing at all, they are worth paying for. If the friends who present them do not value them highly enough to pay the moderate charge which the newspaper exacts for the service desired, then they should not be offended if the contributions are declined.

"The old time custom of paying tribute to the dead is, as we said before, both beautiful and fitting, and the Journal would not for a minute condemn or discourage it. The custom should be practiced, however, with a proper appreciation of the fact that newspapers, like undertakers or any other business concern have to be run on business principles if they are run at all. If a special service of any value is rendered, the one who desires it should certainly not expect to receive value without giving value in return."

A LEVEL-HEADED SENATE

The vote in the state senate yesterday to defer action on the primary bill until important legislation is disposed of, is gratifying to the conservative element of both parties in the state. This action does not mean the defeat of the primary legislation, but it does mean that the state is being served by a senate that possesses level headed common sense.

There is no more urgent demand for primary law legislation at this stage of the session than there is for a waste of time on any other unimportant measure.

A bill is pending that means much to the state and the great railway interests. It is so important that it is entitled to the most careful consideration. There is neither sentiment nor politics connected with it.

The railroad is accused of defrauding the state by not paying their share of taxes. They deny the charge and it remains for the legislature to decide impartially and without prejudice whether the state or the companies are in error.

To lug a primary bill on the scene at such a time is a burlesque and is so regarded by thinking people throughout the state.

It has required half a century in time, the best brain of the country, and a mint of money, to advance and develop the railroad interests of the state. With this development has come wealth and prosperity to the citizens in large degree.

The primary law scheme is the product of a single brain of erratic tendencies, and the only capital invested is manufactured sentiment under the guise of political reform.

The bill can afford to wait until all other legislation is disposed of, and indefinite postponement of the schemes now under discussion, would prove a blessing in disguise.

A college no matter how large or how small it is should be careful of any tinge of dishonesty in its athletic relations. Beloit has a wonderful athlete in the person of a man named Knox, who competed against the high school team from Janesville as an accredited preparatory student. The Beloit papers speak of him as a Freshman and object very strenuously to any mention being made to the fact that perhaps he is a ringer, a student not entirely eligible for to represent the Old Gold as a college student.

If he is not all right, do not try to use him, if he is, put him to the front and he may win laurels. But do not call him a "prep." one day and a Freshman the next.

Poor Beloit. Just because the Gazette told the truth about the athletic managers trying to use a preparatory man in the western college meets in the shape of a "prep." student, whom they will call a Freshman, when the time comes the poor U. W. editor of the Gazette is roasted. If the Beloit papers should know that it was an alumni of the Congregational school itself that wrote the article they would probably keep quiet.

It would seem that if Senator Whitehead was the obstructionist that the Milwaukee organ claims, there are eighteen others in the senate out of thirty members. But perhaps they are all obstructionists too. If the organ says so it is a certainty it is not true.

The Oshkosh Northwestern still goes on and saws wood and says nothing real pertinent about the legislature. They have had their say for some months past and now they have the chance to reap the harvest.

The extra session of the senate will be a dry session. No liquor will be sold in the capital building. The law makers will have a chance to test the anti-canteen law.

Now that it so warm weather that coal is not so much an essential part of the daily life we may expect the mine owners to begin to unload their accumulated surplus from the mines and fuel will be plenty and cheap before long.

People do not want to be too sure that springtime is here before the nights cease to be as sharp as they are now. Winter furs and winter coats have been used in March in past years.

Spring shooting will all be over before the legislature decides whether to allow the hunters a chance at the ducks when they fly north, or not.

Now up comes the Panama canal company with the proposition that perhaps some foreign power is to buy the canal rights since Uncle Sam has delayed so long.

Spite against Senator Aldrich on the part of half a dozen democratic members, caused the defeat of the banking bill. The measure was important and should have passed.

The Philippine tariff bill was talked to death in the closing hours of the senate. The sugar and tobacco interests fought the bill and succeeded in defeating it.

Woman suffrage is before the legislature. Well, those who understand the matter will settle all disputes with aid of a few brothers and deacons.

And so the senate has to be a good lot of little boys and come back to school during vacation time because they have not done their lessons to suit Professor Roosevelt.

Congress is dead and today the new senate meets to do what the old one failed to do. The fifty-seventh is dead, the fifty-eighth is now alive.

This borrowing from Peter to pay Paul still continues in the present day of business and probably will until the end of time.

Now comes Dr. O'Brien, an Irish-American dentist, as a rival in the affections of the crown princess of Saxony.

Perhaps we will have a chance to ride to those golf links in a street car after all. Who knows?

PRESS COMMENT

Chicago Record-Herald: The national golf tournaments have already been arranged. The winter would indeed be hard on the golfers if there were no tournaments to arrange.

Chicago Inter-Ocean: Now that the Kaiser has set the stamp of his approval on the Bible, he should not permit mere prejudice to prevent him from attaching his O. K. to the Monroe doctrine.

Chicago News: If Washington were alive he might feel like trading his hatchet for a hammer and going out after some of the sons of his country.

Indianapolis Journal: Between the possibility of the failure of the treaty, the possibility that the Panama company may not accept the offer of the United States and the possibility that Germany, like the traditional camel, may be trying to get her nose in the tent with the intention of following it up with her body, the Panama canal is amid doubtful environments.

Washington Star: There is a report that Dowle has a large amount of ready money, and the New York police are making special preparations to look after him.

New York Evening Sun: The German newspapers are talking about what Bismarck thought of the Monroe doctrine, on the theory that had he been in power there would have been no victory for American diplomacy in South America. As a matter of fact, the great chancellor was very careful to keep his hands off where we were concerned. He knew his business.

Kansas City Journal: "What we want," says a woman who is besieging the Kansas legislature for the right of the ballot, "is not the worship of man. We are not delicate and fragile pieces of china, good only to put on the mantelpiece to look at. What we want is full fellowship and equality with man, and we will be satisfied with the treatment accorded by man to man." Is the good woman sure of this? Would she be satisfied, for instance, with the salutation ordinarily accorded by man unto man? We think not. We think she would pine for the place on the mantelpiece immediately after some man had slapped her on the back and said: "Why, hello, Liz! Where'n blazes did you come from?"

Baptize a Baby.

In Helligoland a baptism is a pretty sight. During the singing of a psalm a procession of children enters the church and passes in front of the altar. Each child carries a little pan of water, which it empties into the font, and thus the baby's little relatives and future friends and playmates all take an active part in the ceremony by which it is admitted into the fold of the church.

Ban on the Use of Starch.

About a hundred years ago the use of starch for stiffening the frills round the neck was considered highly reprehensible, if not positively sinful.

GOOD PROGRAM IS GIVEN BY LADIES

Woman's Foreign Missionary Society Held Thank Offering Service.

In spite of the disagreeable weather of yesterday afternoon, members of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Court Street M. E. church held an interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. A. C. Rogers, 221 South Main street. The afternoon was devoted to the second chapter of the book, "The People Said," by Mrs. E. S. McChesney being the leader.

The program was an especially interesting one, although several of those who were to have taken part were unable to be present. Mrs. S. S. Higby presented an excellent paper on the Psalms and Mrs. J. M. Hostwick spoke entertainingly on Mohammedanism. Miss Jennie Tilton also gave an interesting talk on conditions in India and Mrs. J. H. Tippet read an article on Viceoys Clive and Hastings.

The program also included the reading of two poems by Mrs. C. A. Hunt, one being a beautiful description of the Taj Mahal and the other Rudyard Kipling's "What the People Said." The annual thank offering for foreign missions was also taken at this meeting.

Walter George Krueger After an eleven days' illness with pneumonia, Walter George Krueger, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Krueger, died at their home, 2 Fourth avenue, this morning at 1:30 o'clock. The little one was sixteen months old and the parents have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement. Funeral services will be held from the home Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock and the interment will be in Oak Hill cemetery.

Pleasing Old English Custom.

Persons aspiring to become bailiffs at Alnwick, in Northumberland, England, have to go through a curious and somewhat unpleasant ordeal. Before the election the various candidates ride up in a body to a horse pond, and there, dismounting their steeds, plunge into the water and struggle as best they may to the other side. The music of a brass band cheers them during their struggles in the dirty water. This ancient custom dates from the time of King John, who once paid a visit to the town in 1210 and found no fitting welcome prepared for him. The blame of this state of unpreparedness was fastened on the luckless bailiffs, who were promptly thrown into the horse pond by royal command.

Uncle Eben's Thanks.

"Don't be envious," said Uncle Eben; "remember that if you had been Julius Caesar himself you'd have to take de 'assassination along wif de res' of it."—Washington Star.

MOCK TRIAL WAS QUITE AMUSING

RUSK LYCEUM PROGRAM CAUSED LOTS OF FUN.

JONES WAS DECLARED GUILTY

Prosecution Proves Him Lacking in School Spirit, and He Must Buy Pie.

Such trifling errors as the administering of the witness' oath to the members of the jury were not permitted to bother the dignity and serenity of the court which conducted the mock trial at the High school building last evening. In fact they went unchallenged and perhaps unnoticed by the majority of the spectators while they contributed largely to the amusement of those who appreciated the humor of the situation.

Because of this mock trial the Rusk Lyceum held an open meeting last evening and there were many friends of the society present when Harry Doran, president of the Lyceum, called the meeting to order. Thomas Casey gave an interesting history of the Rusk Lyceum, which was organized in 1895, after which the mock trial was called.

Mock Trial Called
Henry Skavlem presided as judge and sustained and overruled objections with great impartiality, even taking occasion to object to some of the testimony on his own account. Harry Doran was clerk of the court, Clayton Fisher, chief of police and the jury impaneled included Roy Fredendall, Fred Phelps, Harvey Lee, Matthew Roberty, Earl Brown and Piny Wilbur.

Prosecution and Defense
The charge against Harry Jones, the prisoner, was lack of school spirit as evidenced by going to Beloit on the night of the Burlington-Janesville basketball game. The suit was brought by the Rusk Lyceum and Stow Lovejoy was attorney for the prosecution. He sought to prove a neglect of public duty and the fact that the support of pupils is necessary to the success of the High school basketball team. The witnesses for the prosecution were Grove Pomeroy, Clarence Van Beynum, Harold Smith and Walter Carle.

Russell Zelniger, attorney for the defendant tried to prove that the Beloit trip was planned one week before the basketball game was announced and that the prisoner went to Beloit to attend a lecture by Prof. T. L. Wright, which would assist him in his general history work. The witnesses called were John Roberty, George Caldwell, Thomas Casey, Roy Waters and Will Curtiss.

Clever Cross Examining
The most amusement was occasioned by the questioning the truth and veracity of Clarence Van Beynum, important witness for the prosecution, and Thomas Casey and Roy Waters for the defense. The rebuttal testimony was laughable. Stow Lovejoy succeeded in tangling some of the witnesses up very badly on the cross examination, especially on the dog story and the smashing of club room furniture on which depended Mr. Van Beynum's reputation. Such thoughtless questions as the defending attorney's inquiry "Mr. Van Beynum, what is your name?" also caused amusement.

Sentenced to Buy Pie
Both attorneys made some excellent points but the jury declared the defendant guilty, inasmuch as he had neglected all opportunities to hear Prof. Wright lecture in this city. The judge sentenced him to furnish one round of pie for the Rusk Lyceum. In the main the trial was conducted with careful attention to legal details and it proved profitable as well as amusing.

FIFTEEN SWISS WERE IN TOWN

A Delegation for New Orleans Colony Stop Over for a Short Time in the City.

Fifteen Swiss just over from their native country came to town this morning from Chicago over the St. Paul road on their way to New Orleans. They were transferred to the Mineral Point train and their quaint dress and curious trunks and bags attracted considerable attention around the station.

REPORTORIAL GLEANINGS

Meet With Miss Crosby: The Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church will hold a business meeting at the home of Miss Louise Crosby, 201 Park place, Friday evening at 7:30.

Twilight Club: The regular monthly meeting of the Twilight club will be held on Tuesday evening, March 10 and will be under the leadership of Judge C. L. Filice. It will be the science meeting of the course and will be extremely interesting to the members.

Divorce Granted: A judgment of divorce was filed today in the circuit court in the case of Barbara O'Grady. The decree was granted on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment and failure to support. Edward H. Ryan was attorney for the plaintiff.

Ducks Have Appeared: Ducks are reported to be quite plentiful along the river and several flocks have been seen passing over town. It looks as if we were going to have an early spring or else the ducks are taking long chances on making a hurry up trip back south.

Chas. Tupper

HERE ON TUESDAY, MARCH 17

Speakers from All Parts of the County Will Meet at the Association Building.

Under the auspices of the Wisconsin Anti-Saloon League, a county temperance convention will be held in this city on Tuesday, March 17. Rev. Henry Colman of Milwaukee has engineered the plans for the gathering, and has arranged a program which occupies both the afternoon and evening of the day. Between the two sessions a banquet will be served by the Women's auxiliary.

The sessions will be held in the Y. M. C. A. building. In addition to the speakers whose names have already been announced, others will take part. The program has not been arranged in the interest of any church, party or society. It is simply a general exposition of temperance work in Rock county. Those who wish a plate at the banquet will inform the Rev. T. W. North, of Milton, immediately. Forty cents a plate will be charged.

Afternoon Session
At two o'clock in the afternoon the convention will open with devotional exercises led by Rev. G. W. Huey, following which routine business, the election of officers, and other formalities will be attended to.

LODGE WILL GIVE A BENEFIT DANCE

Royal Neighbors Will Assist a Member Who Was Quarantined Several Weeks.

Crystal Camp No. 132 Royal Neighbors of America will give a benefit dance at West Side Odd Fellows hall, next Wednesday evening. The beneficiary is to be Mrs. Mary Farrell, one of the members of the local camp.

Mrs. Farrell, who resides in Spring Brook on the corner of Eastern and Jerome avenues, is a hardworking woman who supports herself and her family of small children by her own endeavors. During the past winter Mrs. Farrell's children have had scarlet fever and the home was quarantined for several weeks. The expense of the sickness together with the fact that Mrs. Farrell was kept from working for the wages on which the family's support depends has brought a serious financial problem for Mrs. Farrell to face.

Mrs. Farrell's friends in the Royal Neighbors camp, desiring to assist her in a practical way, decided upon giving a dancing party for her benefit. A large number of tickets have already been sold, Mrs. Farrell having many friends who are glad of this opportunity to render assistance.

EPWORTH LEAGUE DISCUSSES PLANS

Business Meeting and Social Was Held at the Home of Dr. and Mrs. F. T. Richards.

Members of the Epworth League of the First M. E. church held an important business meeting and social at the home of Dr. and Mrs. F. T. Richards, 57 Center street, last evening. Plans for the purchase of the new piano were discussed but nothing definite was decided upon.

After the business meeting an enjoyable informal social was held. For the light refreshments, cocoa and tailor's patches were served, the latter being a delicious novelty. Questions as to the nature of them elicited the answer that, like all tailor's patches, they were something to fill up a hole and they certainly fulfilled their mission last evening.

ATHLETES MEET IN MILWAUKEE

Games Are To Be Held Under the Auspices of the A. A. U.—Many Entries.

The mid-winter meet of the A. A. U. at Milwaukee promises to be one of the largest if not the largest meet that has ever been held under the auspices of this organization in the west. Thus far President Litzinger has received four hundred entries for the events which means that one hundred and thirty-nine athletes will compete for honors.

This is the fourth annual meeting of the Amateur Athletic union held in Milwaukee. Among the entries are twenty-six university of Chicago athletes, sixteen men each from the M. A. C. and First regiment of Chicago Central Y. M. C. A. of Chicago has thirteen, University of Illinois twelve and Beloit and Lawrence university eight men each.

Expects Records Smashed
It is said that with all probability there will be many records smashed in the meet and new ones made that will stand for some time as indoor marks for future athletes to try for. The entry of George R. Gray of New York, who holds the world's record of the hammer throw has been refused. This was done for the reason that he is outside of the middle territory which is holding the meet.

PLANS FOR THE POWER PLANT

JANESVILLE ELECTRIC COMPANY WILL SOON BUILD.

GREAT WATER POWER SECURED

Twelve Wheels Are To Be Used to Utilize the Force of Rock River.

Plans are now being prepared by a firm of electrical and hydraulic engineers of Madison for an electrical lighting and power plant. The Janesville Electric company is contemplating the erection of such a building this year, the site being that now occupied by the Ford mill.

P. H. Korst, superintendent of the company, says that until the plans have been received it will be impossible to give out any definite facts regarding the dimensions or the arrangement of the plant. Its ground size will probably be, roughly speaking, somewhere in the neighborhood of 120 by 50 feet, large enough to answer all purposes of an unusually well equipped lighting and power plant.

Great Water Power
One of the principal purposes in building the new plant is to secure greater water power. It is through the utilization of the power of the river that the company claims that it is able to furnish lighting at a figure below the average in the state.

In the downtown plant at present only about one hundred and fifty horse power is generated. With the new equipment that is planned, it is believed that seven hundred and fifty horse power can be secured. It will be done by the use of a series of twelve water wheels of the vertical turbine type.

Whether the Ford mill will be torn down or moved away has not yet been decided. If the weather is favorable, says Mr. Korst, work on the new plant may begin in thirty days.

Lower Mill Improvements
At the lower mills the improvements are nearly completed. The new alternator has been erected, connected and the switchboard set up. The latter is a handsome piece of work, of Vermont marble. An eleven-foot pulley has been put in place to transmit power to the dynamo. It is so arranged that it can be driven by either water or steam power without stopping to make the change.

For nearly three weeks E. T. Fish has been busy with a force of men, in shifting the location of the most powerful of the five water wheels to place it where its power can be utilized to greater advantage. The wheel which was taken out has been scaped so that now there are but four wheels for use, all of which are in condition for the most efficient work. Their power is estimated at about four hundred-horse power.

POPE'S HEALTH CAUSES ALARM

CARDINALS REMAIN IN ROME

Postponement of Their Departure for Distant Posts Gives Rise to Rumors That Delay Is Result of Leo's Serious Illness.

Rome, March 5.—There is growing alarm over the health of the pope. The condition of the pontiff, as shown on the day of his coronation, was not calculated to allay the fears of Vatican officials, and circumstances since then have tended to increase rather than decrease the general anxiety. This is demonstrated by the fact that some of the cardinals who have come to Rome from a distance have postponed their departure indefinitely.

Statement Is Significant. In the Osservatore Romano, the Vatican organ, an official note appears stating that on the advice of his physician the pope has decided to take several days of absolute rest, and see to one. This statement is regarded as significant by the general public. Dr. Lippini and the Vatican officials are doing everything in their power to create the impression that the pope's health is comparatively good. They make the following explanation of the note in the Osservatore Romano.

Yields to Physicians. The pope, they say, never succeeded in getting rid of the cold which caused a slight cough and hoarseness. Dr. Lippini, on visiting his holiness, found that he was somewhat better, but frankly told him that he must either consent to cure his cold or he would run the risk of something serious. The pontiff thereupon gave way and promised to suspend his audiences. To save annoyance, Dr. Lippini advised the pope to publicly announce this determination through the Osservatore Romano.

All in all, the condition of the pope, taking into consideration his advanced age, is not without danger and is causing considerable anxiety.

SEVENTEEN HURT IN A WRECK

Rock Island Express Hits Passenger Train Near Kansas City.

Kansas City, Mo., March 5.—The Golden State Limited of the Rock Island railroad, running over the Union Pacific tracks, crashed into the smoker of another passenger train which was trying to make a siding at the Rock Island Junction, just outside of the Kansas City yards. The smoker was thrown from the track, turned over and smashed into kindling wood and seventeen passengers sustained injuries. Two other cars immediately after the smoker were derailed.

NO HOPE FOR MRS. MAYBRICK

Her Release Not Contemplated and No Representations Made.

Washington, March 5.—The British embassy at Washington states that there is no foundation for the reports that Mrs. Maybrick's release is contemplated by the British authorities; that there has been no recent correspondence on the subject between Washington and London, and that there have been no representations to the state department, none being contemplated.

Mrs. Austin's Buckwheat has a world wide reputation on account of its purity and genuine buckwheat flavor. Don't forget the name.

CUSTOMS SERVICE.

Secretary Shaw Has Decided on Many Changes.

Washington, March 5.—Secretary Shaw has decided upon a number of changes in the customs service. John R. Garrison, whose resignation as auditor for Porto Rico has been accepted, to take effect March 31, was offered, a month or so ago, the position as chief of the customs division. The present chief, Andrew Johnson, will be made assistant chief, and the present assistant chief, who is in ill health, will be given some subordinate position.

Frank E. Johnson, who has been detailed to the office of Assistant Secretary Spaulding, will be made special agent and given outside service. His place in the office of the assistant secretary will be supplied by James L. Geary, now law clerk in the customs division.

The efficiency of the customs service in all the important cities has been quietly investigated and Secretary Shaw has in mind a number of changes. General Spaulding will be provided for as a special employee and assigned to duty as special counsel for the customs division. Assistant Secretary Armstrong, who assumed his new office this afternoon, has selected N. G. Vandorn as his private secretary.

APPROPRIATIONS.

Totals Exceed Those of Previous Congress by $100,000,000.

Washington, March 5.—The appropriations made during the session of Congress aggregated $753,454,018, as against $650,234,496 for the last session. The total for the entire Congress thus footed up $1,554,109,514, or something more than $100,000,000 in excess of the total appropriations for the Fifty-sixth Congress, the total for that Congress being $1,449,439,438. These figures were embodied in a statement presented to the Senate by Mr. Allison, chairman of the committee on appropriations. The statement also contained an itemized statement showing the expenditures for the last session by bills as follows: Agriculture, $5,978,160; Army, $78,138,752; Diplomatic and consular, $1,968,250; District of Columbia, $8,647,457; Fortifications, $7,188,116; Indian, $8,512,950; Legislative, executive and judicial, $27,595,953; Military academy, $652,248; Navy, $81,877,291; Pensions, $129,547,600; Postoffices, $153,401,549; Sundry civil, $82,272,553; Deleclucles, $21,561,572; Permanent annual appropriations, $122,559,820; Miscellaneous, $3,250,000.

TO ADMIT FOUR STATES.

Mr. Quay Makes Prediction in Speech Before Senate.

Washington, March 5.—Considerable importance attaches to a declaration made in the Senate by Mr. Quay, who has been leading the statehood fight, that at the next session of Congress four new states would be admitted to the Union. Mr. Quay regretted the filibuster that prevented a vote upon the omnibus bill, and then made his important declaration.

It is the purpose of the friends of statehood to renew the fight early next session, and they will attempt to put through an omnibus bill admitting Oklahoma, New Mexico, Arizona and Indian Territory to statehood. It will not unite Oklahoma and Indian Territory as one state, as did the bill which failed, but will give them separate government.

Merriam May Retire.

Washington, March 5.—A new director of the census is promised in David H. Mercer, who has ended, for the time being at least, his congressional career as a representative from the Omaha district. Owing to a factional fight Mr. Mercer was defeated at the last election. He is widely popular, having, as chairman of the committee on public buildings and grounds, made a host of friends. It is understood that Mr. Merriam, the present director, intends to shortly leave the census office, and Mr. Mercer's friends are confident that he will be given the vacancy.

Tea Service for Mason.

Washington, March 5.—After the adjournment of the senate the members of the committee on postoffices congregated in the committee room and presented an elegant tea service to Senator Mason, the retiring chairman of the committee. The presentation speech was made by Senator Dolliver, and was filled with expressions of good will. Senator Mason responded in a happy and appreciative vein. Mrs. Mason and a number of friends were present.

New German Attache.

Washington, March 5.—Baron von dem Busche Haddenhausen has been selected to succeed Count Quadt as counsellor and first secretary of the German embassy here. He expects to take up his duties at the embassy about March 18. The new secretary has been in London as second secretary of the embassy. Previous to this mission he was attached to the German embassy at Cairo.

KILLS THE ANTITRUST MEASURE

New Jersey Assembly Defeats Bill Requiring Quarterly Statements.

Trenton, N. J., March 5.—In the house a bill requiring trust companies to make a public statement of their assets and liabilities four times a year was defeated after being opposed by Mr. Fielder of Hudson. Mr. Fielder said that the bill accomplished no statements, he said, amounted to nothing, as they were prepared from the trust company's standpoint. What was wanted, he said, was a more rigid inspection of these companies by the banking and insurance departments.

CREATE STATE DEPOSITORIES

Idaho Legislators Pass a Bitterly Contested Bank Measure.

Boise, Idaho, March 5.—The state depositories bill, an administration measure, has passed both houses of the legislature and will now become a law. By the provisions of the bill a board composed of the governor, auditor and attorney general shall designate banks in which state money shall be deposited. These banks shall pay not less than 2 per cent on daily balances and furnish security for the money. The bill has been bitterly opposed.

KILLS HIS BROTHER AT TABLE

Bullet Stops Supper of Man Whom Family Does Not Recognize.

Terre Haute, Ind., March 5.—William Draper, aged 40, shot his brother Frank, aged 45, when he found the latter eating supper at their mother's home. The wound is thought to be fatal. William Draper says his brother did not deserve family recognition. William has been placed in jail at Paris, Ill.

COSTS NOTHING UNLESS CURED

A Fair Offer Made by the People's Drug Co. to All Sufferers of Catarrh.

The People's Drug Co. are selling Hyomel on a plan that has caused considerable talk amongst the customers. The plan is different from that followed by other remedies, but their remedy itself is different also. This treatment for the cure of catarrh has such an unusual record of cures to its credit that the People's Drug Co. offer to refund the money if it does not give the desired benefit. This is certainly one of the fairest offers that can be made, and any one who has catarrh and does not take advantage of it is doing himself or herself an injustice.

The Hyomel treatment consists of an inhaler that can be carried in the vest-pocket, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomel. The complete treatment costs but $1.00 and as the inhaler will last a lifetime and there is sufficient Hyomel for more than a month's use, the medicine is very inexpensive. Many people who have used it write that for the good Hyomel has done for them they would willingly pay thousands of dollars.

Extra bottles of Hyomel can be procured for use with the inhaler at 50c. Do not suffer any longer with tickling, smarting, irritating, burning, eye-watering troubles that afflict those who have catarrh. Hyomel will cure you, but if you should not find it adapted to your case the People's Drug Co. will return your money.

SAY INJUNCTION IS DUE TO FORGERY

WILL ASK FOR DISSOLUTION

Appeal to Be Made to Judge Adams to Set Aside the Order by Which the Wabash Employees Are Prohibited From Striking.

St. Louis, Mo., March 5.—In their motion for a discussion of the injunction granted against them by Judge Elmer B. Adams of the United States District court, which Grand Master P. H. Morrissey of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, John J. Hannahan, grand master of the firemen, and the committees of Wabash employees will probably file today, it is expected that allegations in the Wabash railway's bill of complaint to the effect that the labor leaders conspired to interfere with the interstate traffic of the Wabash by a strike and sent out a letter to employees of the road denouncing the company and its president, Joseph Ramsey, Jr., will be positively denied.

Declare Letter a Forgery.
Chief Morrissey declared that the letter cited in the Wabash's bill of complaint was a forgery and not authorized by the committee or the labor leaders. He declared that the man who wrote it was known to the leaders of the strike movement and intimidated that he was paid to cause trouble between the Wabash and its employees.

W. T. Irwin of Peoria, Ill., and E. J. Penny of Cleveland, O., attorneys for the organizations, have arrived in the city. They will make the motion for a dissolution of the injunction. Shortly after their arrival they called at the courthouse and were given a copy of the decree granting the injunction as well as the bill on which the decree was granted.

Promise Revelations.
Mr. Penny afterwards said revelations would be made in the motion for the dissolution of the injunction when evidence would be introduced showing the authenticity of the letter.

The letter urges the men to support the committee or the organization and closes with an allusion to dragging the Wabash flag in the dust in case it cannot be conquered. The letter reviews the alleged opposition which the Wabash has manifested toward organized labor. It closes with an entreaty that the Wabash flag be either conquered or dragged in the dirt.

Has Nothing to Arbitrate.
Asked if he was in favor of arbitration, Mr. Ramsey laughingly replied: "I cannot see what I have to arbitrate."

Chief Morrissey, asked if the employees would be willing to arbitrate, said: "Our organization is pledged to arbitration, but in this case the great point at issue is the injunction and I certainly think we would not be willing to arbitrate our rights to ask that this injunction be dissolved."

Judge Adams declined to discuss his injunction further than to say that the congressmen and senators who had criticized his ruling probably were unfamiliar with the allegations in the bill and petition.

DEATH KNELL OF STRIKES.

Injunction's Effect So Characterized by Leaders of Wall Street.

New York, March 5.—"If the Wabash Railroad company can sustain its position the death knell of strikes on interstate railroads has been sounded," was the opinion expressed in financial circles. It was pointed out that the obligations of carrying companies to the interstate commerce commission had never before been interposed as a legal bar to strikes. Should the injunction be made permanent it was said that a blow would be struck at labor organizations similar to that in England, when the Taff Vale Railway company was awarded damages against the Workmen's association for ordering and maintaining a strike to the detriment of the company's business.

Blood Was Poisoned

A Happy Cure After Use of Two Bottles of ## Paine's Celery Compound.

THE SPRING SYSTEM CLEANSER
Health is that natural state of the whole body in which the entire nervous system is so perfectly regulated that it can, without undue effort, perform its almost numberless and all-important duties.

The blood as it courses through the body must bear nourishment and life or poisons and death.

In the spring season thousands around us suffer from the various forms of blood diseases and many are unexpectedly cut down by death.

Your blood is surely filled with waste and poisonous matters "when you suffer from boils, pimples, blackheads, eczema, salt rheum, erysipelas or iten. When nerve force is low, when you suffer from insomnia, lassitude or neuralgia, be assured your blood demands purifying and cleansing.

Paine's Celery Compound quickly banishes from the blood all poisons; it supplies the proper elements for enriching the vital fluid, building tissue and for the general repair of the whole system. Try its renovating and life giving virtues at once if you would be made well, strong and happy. Judge P. P. Desvergne, of Havana, says:

"While I was in New York I read about Paine's Celery Compound and never thought I would ever get well. I only took one bottle of that wonderful discovery and found myself with better vigor and energy."

Mr. Thos. Young, Elmora, Pa., says: "I suffered very much from blood poisoning, and after doctoring for two months with my physician and not receiving any good results, I tried Paine's Celery Compound. The use of two bottles completely cured me. All my thanks are due to Paine's Celery Compound."

THE CHILDREN ENJOY

Life out of doors and out of the games which they play and the enjoyment which they receive and the efforts which they make, comes the greater part of that healthful development which is so essential to their happiness when grown. When a laxative is needed the remedy which is given to them to cleanse and sweeten and strengthen the internal organs on which it acts, should be such as physicians would sanction, because its component parts are known to be wholesome and the remedy itself free from every objectionable quality. The one remedy which physicians and parents, well-informed, approve and recommend and which the little ones enjoy, because of its pleasant flavor, its gentle action and its beneficial effects, is—Syrup of Figs—and for the same reason it is the only laxative which should be used by fathers and mothers.

Syrup of Figs is the only remedy which acts gently, pleasantly and naturally without griping, irritating, or nauseating and which cleanses the system effectually, without producing that constipated habit which results from the use of the old-time cathartics and modern imitations, and against which the children should be so carefully guarded. If you would have them grow to manhood and womanhood, strong, healthy and happy, do not give them medicines, when medicines are not needed, and when nature needs assistance in the way of a laxative, give them only the simple, pleasant and gentle—Syrup of Figs.

Its quality is due not only to the excellence of the combination of the laxative principles of plants with pleasant aromatic syrups and juices, but also to our original method of manufacture and as you value the health of the little ones, do not accept any of the substitutes which unscrupulous dealers sometimes offer to increase their profits. Please to remember, the full name of the Company—CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.—is printed on the front of every package. In order to get its beneficial effects it is always necessary to buy the genuine only. For sale by all reliable druggists.

FRANCES MARIE KNOWLTON
AGE 24 MONTHS.

MISS MAY DENMORE
34 DELAWARE PL.
CHICAGO.

Miss Sarah MacComb, whose hair touches the floor when she stands erect, says: "My hair would not reach below my waist when I commenced using Danderine, and it is now over five feet in length." (Look at her beautiful hair and judge for yourself whether or not she got the worth of her money.)

The above photograph of Miss Frances Marie Knowlton shows what care, persistence and a good hair invigorating tonic will do in the way of producing hair. This little girl has had Danderine applied to her hair and scalp regularly ever since she was three months of age, with the result that she now has the longest and most beautiful head of hair ever possessed by a child of her age. Frances Marie is the daughter of Dr. E. W. Knowlton, the discoverer of Danderine, 650 Garfield boulevard, Chicago. The doctor says that her hair continues to grow very rapidly and he is sure it will be long enough to touch the floor when she stands erect by the time she is four years old.

Miss May Denmore, now the longest-haired lady in the world, says: "I have used your Danderine two years, and my hair has grown over an inch in length every month since I commenced its use. It surely contains most remarkably invigorating qualities." (Miss Denmore writes us under recent date that Danderine had made her hair grow three feet longer than it was naturally, and is still growing.)

$1,000 will be given to anyone who proves that the above photographs and testimonials are not absolutely genuine and unsolicited.

PRETTY SUBSTANTIAL PROOF OF MERIT! IS IT NOT?

MORE ACREAGE IS NOW SECURED

P. Hohenadel, Jr., Has Now About Twelve Hundred Acres To Be Planted This Year.

Another large farm has been rented by the P. Hohenadel Jr., Co., which will increase their holdings of rented property for factory purposes up to twelve hundred acres.

The latest farm to be acquired by them is the old C. F. Wilcox farm in the town of Rock adjoining the interurban railroad. It contains 160 acres and will be planted with sweet corn.

A large share of the twelve hundred acres will be used to raise sweet corn and will be a great help to the factory in securing sufficient acreage of this product.

Good Outlook

The outlook this year is very good for securing acreage enough among the farmers to keep the factory running full force during the canning season. Mr. Hohenadel and his superintendent Mr. Berliharz have been out in the country securing contracts for acreage and are much pleased with their success. The farmers all seem to feel that there is good money in raising sweet corn and about all who can spare the land for this purpose are signing contracts for acreage.

Want Cucumbers

The gentlemen have also had good success in securing acreage for cucumbers and at present it looks as if with a favorable season the factory would have about all the produce it could handle.

At the present there is very little doing at the factory outside of getting things ready for the coming season and shipping out orders for the stock, still on hand from last year's pack.

BAPTIST LADIES WORK MISSIONS

Two Societies of Women Will Hold Meetings in the Church Parlor Tomorrow.

Tomorrow will be a day of missionary activity at the Baptist church. At three o'clock in the afternoon the Woman's Missionary society will meet in the church parlors and will continue their study of "Via Christi," making for the afternoon's subject the last part of Chapter V and the first part of Chapter VII in the book.

At six o'clock the Young Ladies' Mission circle, which has been organized recently, will meet in the church parlors and enjoy supper together. The supper hour will be followed by a program on China and a cordial invitation is extended to all the young ladies of the church and congregation to be present at the meeting.

Population is Centralized.

CLAPPER VICTOR OVER SANDOW

Wrestling Match at Sharon Goes to Frank Clapper, with Astonishing Ease.

The wrestling match at Sharon last night between Frank Clapper, the champion of Walworth county and Young Sandow, was a good deal like the Clapper-Brown match. Clapper won the match by securing the first two falls and showed he was Sandow's master at any stage of the game. The first fall went to Clapper in 23 minutes and 32 seconds. The second was much quicker, Clapper winning in 3 minutes and two seconds.

Quite a crowd went down from this city and were quite disappointed in the showing made by Sandow as they had good reason to think he might win the match or get at least one fall. Clapper has improved very much of late on account of good training and is considered a good match for any of the men that have appeared in this city during the winter.

Japanese Going Ahead.

At Tokio the Japanese postal authorities are considering the advisability of purchasing motor cars for the conveyance of mails.
